North Perth Arts and Culture Council chosen as recipient for 14th Annual Charity Golf Classic 2007

Members of the North Perth Arts and Culture Council (NPACC) are honoured to have been chosen as the recipient of proceeds from the upcoming Charity Golf Classic Tournament, held at the Listowel Golf and Country Club on July 19. This funding will enable us to meet our basic start up costs in becoming established as a key organization in our community.

In order to become an accredited Arts and Culture Council, we must become incorporated as a not-for-profit organization. Incorporation will allow us to participate in the provincial arts community, and access provincial and federal funding in the future. Charity Golf funding will finance incorporation costs.

Funding will also be used to purchase a laptop computer and data base program to track information regarding, and communicate with, artists of all genres in our area and provide information to those interested in upcoming artistic and cultural events in the community.

As well, funding will be used to promote our mission and upcoming events through brochures; the creation and maintenance of a website; and radio, television and newspaper advertising.

This is the 14th year for the annual Charity Golf Classic. Our thanks go to Chair, Paul Bartman, and his committee for selecting NPACC as the recipient. With many worthy applicants, the committee is challenged, every year, when making its selection.

We know many hours of preparation have already been invested in the planning of this year's event, with many more to come. The Classic is a well-organized and finely honed event, resulting from the dedication and effort of many individuals. The generosity of area businesses, individuals and the celebrity golfers, always ensures an excellent assortment of prizes for raffles. We wish all involved great success with this year's event.

The Arts and Culture Council has committed to ensuring a number of volunteers are available to help the day before, the day of, and the day after the tournament. We are appealing to our readers and members to help fulfill this commitment. If you would like to help, please call Brenda Kaufman at 291-4167.

The North Perth Arts and Culture Council present the FIRST IMPRESSIONS Arts Workshops Weekend Saturday April 28th. The workshops will take place at the Kin Station from 9 am to 4:30 pm.

Come and explore your creativity, expand your appreciation of the arts, and take part in this inaugural arts event for Listowel. The workshops include:

Watercolor Painting: Floral and Life Figure Drawing,
The Art of Comic Book and Graphic Novel Illustration
How to Promote Yourself as an Artist/Performer and Make a Digital Portfolio

The day's activities also feature a 'Starving Artists' Luncheon at noon at the Kin Station. The day events wrap up with an evening concert at Theatre 311 featuring Ali Matthews. This award winning singer-songwriter from Stratford, with guitarist Rick Francis will perform an inspirational musical exploration of styles that includes folk, pop, rock, jazz and country. Also appearing is local musician Mozart Gelinias.

Sure Sign of Fair Weather

Cathy Bitton, Treasurer of the North Perth Arts and Culture Council and Paul Bartman, Chair of the Listowel Charity Golf Classic are preparing for the fun and fund raising of this summer's event. The proceeds from the Charity Golf Classic are earmarked to support deserving local groups.

This year the newly formed NPACC will be the recipient. The funds will be used to establish the group in the community and to register as a non-profit group. The Listowel Charity Golf Classic is set for Thursday July 19. The largest percentage of the funds raised comes from the sale of raffle tickets for the large selection of prizes on display during the tournament.

Tickets are available from any North Perth Arts and Culture Council member or by calling 291- 2583.
